

Invitation to Symposium

"Freemasonry in the 21st century"

Friday, June 23, 2017 gross Temple Rauhensteingasse 3, A-1010
Vienna Start: 14:00

Leader: Niyazi Serdar Sariciftci

Synopsis

Three hundred years Freemasonry, what now? Is our federal government with its structures up to date? Are we Freemasons For the comprehensive societal challenges of the 21st century cu'y gm? How can we apply our ideas in the next decades in the Brotherhood?

The Masons have helped shape based on humanistic core values thg development of society sustainable. They have contributed to tgcuppu of states as well as the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. Many Masonic accomplished outstanding achievements in science, art, literature and music. The tasks of Freemasonry it belongs to brighten the spirit and to develop ideas that further bring humanity. At the symposium, we ask the question, what methods we should use in the future here.

We are particularly pleased to i tggvBtq David West, the author of the book "Managing the Future of Freemasonry".

Contributors

Niyazi Serdar Sariciftci (Scientific Director of FM -. Academie JOK, Linz)
Georg Semler (GM, ACA, Vienna)
Clemens Leitgeb (DepGM, PHO, Vienna)
Willy Kempel (Head of FM - Academy Werkstatte FM21, SOK, Vienna)
Helmut Reinalter (TAM, Salzburg)
David West (GL of England)
Franz Eiselt (Geschäftsführer FM - Academy, DON, Vienna)

Program:

13:00 Welcome coffee,
Arrival of the guests

14:00 Qr gt cvkpp
GM Georg Semler

14:05 "Freemasonry today and in the future"
DepGM Clemens Leitgeb

14:30 "The future work of Statte
FM - Academy of Austria "Willy
Kempel

15:00 "The new Ert hlec vkkp and
Freemasonry
"Helmut
Reinalter

15:30 Coffee break

16:00 "Managing the Future of Freemasonry"
David West

16:30 discussion
Moderated by Franz Eiselt

17:30 Summary
Niyazi Serdar Sariciftci